CBD QUESTIONS

There are a lot of misconceptions about CBD out there, so let us tackle a few common questions!

WHAT IS CBD?

CBD stands for cannabidiol, one of the many cannabinoids found in both marijuana and hemp.

WHAT ARE CANNABINOIDS?

There are over 100 unique chemical compounds found in both marijuana and hemp called cannabinoids. The two most famous of these are CBD and THC. THC is the compound found in marijuana that gets you “high.” CBD is the non-psychoactive cannabinoid found in hemp that has recently received much attention.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CANNABIS AND HEMP?

Marijuana and hemp are two varieties of the same plant species, Cannabis sativa. Hemp has been cultivated to contain very low levels of THC (0.3% or less) and high levels of CBD. Nature’s Ultra products contain zero percent (0.0%) THC.

HOW IS NATURE’S ULTRA CBD TESTED?

We have a rigorous quality assurance system. We test each of our products for purity and potency and to ensure they don’t contain THC, heavy metals, solvents, or pesticides. Go to naturesultra.com/pages/verify to view the test results for your specific batch of product!

WILL CBD MAKE ME HIGH?

Our Smart Spectrum CBD contains 0.0% THC, so it is unlikely to cause the euphoric side effects that are sometimes attributed to the cannabis plant.
