

Daily Prebiotic Fiber™

Product Size: 7.97 oz. (226 g)

Item No.: 36014

Boosting your fiber intake doesn't have to be complicated. One scoop of our Daily Prebiotic Fiber supplement serves up 6 grams of plant-based prebiotic fiber from agave, partially hydrolyzed guar gum, and prickly pear cactus extract. Naturally flavored with passionfruit powder, it's the quickest and tastiest way to support your digestive health.*

Another reason you'll love it? Unlike other prebiotic powders, it dissolves into juice or water with minimal clumping and keeps you feeling full longer. Cheers to smooth sipping, better bowel movements, and a happy, healthy gut!

SUGGESTED USES

- Mix 1 scoop in 8 ounces of water, juice, or our NingXia Red® drink once daily.
- Take in the morning 30 minutes before meals on an empty stomach.
- Pair with our NingXia Greens™ powder for a one-two punch of gut and overall health support.*

KEY INGREDIENTS

Agave inulin: Plant-based prebiotic fiber from the Agave tequilana plant that provides a feeling of fullness.*

Partially hydrolyzed guar gum: Non-GMO, plant-based prebiotic fiber with slow fermentation that aids in building healthy gut bacteria.*

Prickly pear cactus extract: High-fiber ingredient that helps maintain a healthy mucosal lining of the intestinal wall.*

Sip your way to gut health with Daily Prebiotic Fiber powder! Our plant-based formula helps keep you feeling full longer while supporting a healthy gut microbiome, digestive system, and immune system.*
