

If you are unable to write a full letter to describe your beliefs in detail (such as they only let you fill out the space on a form, not attach anything else).

“My Christian body is the Holy Spirit’s temple. My God-given requirement is to protect the physical integrity from unclean food or substances that enter my body. Vaccine additives are Biblical contaminants thus altering God’s designed body according to His law, causing harm to my religious conscience.”