

Elder Sharonda L. Brown

Elder Sharonda L. Brown is an anointed woman, wife, mother, leader, certified counselor, and coach.

Elder Sharonda received her Bachelors degree from Rowan University; a Masters in Communication, Media Management from NYI, and a Masters of Divinity in Pastoral Counseling from Regent University.

Elder Sharonda Brown is a Certified Life Coach with Life-forming Leadership Coaching and a Pre-Marital Coach/Counselor with SYMBIS. In September 2018, Sharonda was ordained as an Elder. Her passion for preaching and teaching the Word and overall, seeing lives transformed all lent itself to the development of Lifeguard Outreach Ministries.

Her husband, Mark Brown, is her partner in life, ministry, and business. Together, they own and operate three businesses while raising four children in the fear and admonition of the Lord. As a family, their mission is to see all of God's people happy, healthy, and whole by the Spirit of the Lord and the grace of GOD.

Those who may know Elder Sharonda Brown, can attest to her passion, sincerity, humility, and operational excellence. She is a cheerful giver, and she sows with God's love, grace, and generosity. Elder Sharonda avails herself to be used by God and in the Holy Spirit and teaches sound doctrine with wisdom, power, and authority.

As a woman of God and trained professional, Elder Sharonda serves the Lord with all diligence, gives with her whole heart, and executes everything she puts her hands to with excellence, integrity, and passion.

Be open, receptive, and responsive to the Holy Spirit as this woman of God teaches, ministers, and delivers the Word of Life in Jesus Name.

