About me

I'm Christianna. I help introverted writers crush their goals and share their authentic voice with my proven processes -- without feeling exhausted.

I'm a storyteller through and through. It took a few detours and side quests before I ended up on my full-time writer journey, but here I am. I'm here to help you do the same.

I chose to go full-time in 2022 as an indie author, copywriter, and virtual assistant to creative entrepreneurs (fellow indie authors are my♥)

My Creative Consult 1:1 with Christianna was an answer to prayer. Christianna took the time to ask questions and listen to my answers. Then she tailored her advice to fit where I am as a new biz owner. After our 1:1, she followed up with an emailed summary *and* my customized plan of action. Thank you, Christianna! This was just what I needed!
