Natural waves are information carriers

All naturally occurring waves in nature have a vortex shape (three dimensional). These waves come from sunlight, cosmic radiation, magnetic fields, gravitational fields and others. These waves provide information to the body. The water in the body serves as a recording media and carrier of information just like the videotape or any other magnetic media such as the computer's hard drive, etc.

Natural waves are modulators of the body

The information received by the body from the natural waves serve to regulate the body's biorhythms and the function of the organs and glands. It also modulates the DNA. Without this information the glands and the organs cannot function and communicate with each other properly, and the body cannot adapt to his environment. This is the reason that people feel better in a natural environment.

BioSyntonie Restores Vortex Waves Utilizing Natural Resonance Phenomena

Biosyntony restores the normal vortex waves by the resonance phenomena. The ceramic memory discs resonate and create vortex waves whenever they are exposed to natural or artificial waves. The various crystalline materials in the discs emit beneficial vortex waves which will restore the correct information to the body thus improving its functions physiologically and energetically. This phenomena results in greater well-being as well as acceleration of healing physically, emotionally and mentally.

Essential Oils and EMF Protection

Serve as adaptogens

Direct and indirect benefits with EMF protection.

Rose has the highest Hz at 320

Lavender - 115-120Hz.

Essential oils can raise the body's energy (vibration) so it can function as best as it can to keep immunity strong.

A vibrant pink rose in bloom is the central focus, with its petals layered and detailed. To the left, a portion of a dark glass bottle with a silver cap is visible, suggesting the essential oil. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green, likely representing rose leaves.
