Apply on your skin.

Aromatically

Use in the diffuser or by inhaling.

Internally

The labels that are white are from the Vitality line and have dietary instructions on them indicating they are safe to ingest.

Recipes for your Pregnancy

More Than a Fragrance

Uplifting Perfume:

Mix the following ingredients together in a glass spray bottle.

- 4 oz. 100 proof vodka* or Witch Hazel to emulsify the essential oils
- 20-40 drops of your favorite essential oils
- Top with distilled water
- Shake well and spritz

* Most vodkas are 80 proof. If you cannot find 100 proof and use 80 proof, you will need to shake your perfume before each use.

"Me Time" is the best time

Relaxing Infused Bath Salts:

- 1-2 cups Epsom salt
- 10 drops Lavender or any other calming oil of choice

Add the Essential Oil to the bath salts; shake or stir; then, add the mixture to a warm bath.

Prepare for the big day

Perineum Massage Oil:

Massage the perineum with this oil blend for soft expandable skin.

- 8 drops Geranium
- 5 drops Lavender
- 1 oz. V6 carrier oil
- Massage your perineum with this blend along with a spray or two of ClaraDerm three times a day
- Add 5 drops of Fennel to the recipe one week before delivery

Roller Recipes for Labor

Add essential oils to a glass roll-on container and top with a carrier oil such as Young Living V-6, fractionated coconut, or olive oil.

Calm

- 10 drops Clary Sage
- 3 drops Peace & Calming
- 5-10 drops Frankincense
- 2 drops Stress Away
- 2 drops Lavender

Focus

- 5 drops Highest Potential
- 5 drops Present Time
- 5 drops Brain Power
- 5 drops Clary Sage

Labor

- 10 drops Clary Sage
- 10 drops Gentle Baby
- 5 drops Geranium

NOTE: You can consider adding Dragon Time but it will smell strongly of fennel.

Tummy

- 8 drops Peppermint*
- 15 drops Spearmint
- 5 drops DiGize (and more if you enjoy the smell)

* Peppermint can cause a decrease in milk supply for some. If you have concerns about milk production, please omit Peppermint from your roller.

Courage

- 25 drops Valor
